

The True Believer

Hoffer had it about right, and about the Right, at least the insane portion thereof.

We're reactionaries. We want to return to an aesthetic

which never existed.
A--fill in your own word,
Republican, Conservative, Fascist--dreamworld. I just throw in the last label for sparks.

Let's substitute Totalitarian.

We want our brand of freedom and must therefore, if you won't accept it,
force you to swallow it.

Now, most bets are off if we're elected. Rhetoric remains, but we'd deal with the devil himself, or a Liberal.

That's the nature of the game, all money being green.
